Where Are You?

An old gospel preacher stood before a great audience and announced the text of his sermon. He said, "My text is Genesis 3:9. The Bible says, 'And the Lord God called unto Adam and said unto him, Where art thou?" The preacher continued, "I will make three divisions in this study. First, every man has to be somewhere. Second, some men are where they ought not be. Third, they that are where they ought not be are one day going to find themselves

God's question to Adam ("Where are you?") serves to remind us today of spiritually geographic locations where accountable persons find themselves.

Some ARE in Christ. Those who have obeyed the gospel (1 Corinthians 15:1-4; Romans 6:17), and are living faithful to Christ are in Him (Ephesians 1:3). There is no condemnation in Christ (Romans 8:1). There is forgiveness of sins in Christ (Ephesians 1:7). There is salvation in Christ (2 Timothy 2:10). The Scriptures teach that one is baptized into Christ's death where He shed His blood (Romans 6:3-4; John 19:33-34). Paul wrote, "For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ" (Galatians 3:27). Having been baptized into Christ, one remains in this spiritual location by walking in the light (1 John 1:7) and remaining faithful to Him unto death (Revelation 2:10).

Some WERE in Christ. It is possible for those who were once in the right spiritual location (in Christ) to depart (fall away from) that location. Those who think they stand in Christ are warned to "take heed" lest they fall (1 Corinthians 10:12). The grace of God is in Christ (2 Timothy 2:1), and some have fallen from that grace (Galatians 5:4). Some were in the location where they had escaped the sinful pollutions of the world, but they moved to another location where they were condemned (2 Peter 2:20-22). It is possible for those who have been enlightened by the truth, and received the gift of the Holy Spirit (Hebrews 6:4; 10:26-32; Acts 2:38), to fall away (Hebrews 6:4-6). Those who do not abide in Christ will, one day, be where they will eternally regret such (cf. John 15:6).

Some ARE NOT (and never have been) in Christ. To be outside of Christ is to be without hope (Ephesians 2:12). Most are in this location (Matthew 7:13-14), because they have not Where are you? Are you in Christ? Are you away from Christ due to having fallen? Are you outside Christ because of having not obeyed the gospel? "Examine yourselves as to

What Do The Scriptures Say?

taken from our website: ScripturesSay.com Baptism With The Holy Spirit

By Keith Sharp

Part 4 of 8

Is It Needed?

We have seen that the promise of baptism with the Holy Spirit was to the apostles alone. Now let's look at second part of the Pentecostal claim. Do all believers need baptism with the Holy Spirit? To answer this question, we must determine the purposes of this immersion. What were the purposes of Holy Spirit baptism? Witness Establishment of Kingdom

Jesus promised that some hearing him would "not taste death till they see the kingdom of God present with power" (Mark 9:1). Not only did Christ pledge the kingdom would come within the life span of some of his audience, he also revealed how they could discern its arrival. It would come "with power."

Just before Jesus' ascension to His Father, when the apostles "had come together" with Him (Acts 1:2,6), they asked, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" (Acts 1:6). The Master refused to unveil the precise time of the kingdom's establishment (verse 7). However, he promised, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you" (verse 8). This reception of the Holy Spirit was the baptism with the Holy Spirit (verses 4-5).

When was the kingdom to come? When the power had come. When would the power come? When the Holy Spirit came upon the apostles. When did the Holy Spirit come upon the apostles? On the first Pentecost after Jesus' resurrection (Acts 2:1-4). When, then, was the kingdom of God established? Upon the first Pentecost after the Lord's resurrection.

What, therefore, was the purpose of Holy Spirit baptism? To witness the fact the kingdom of God had come. Since the kingdom has been established, Holy Spirit baptism has fulfilled its purpose and ceased. Power

Another purpose of Holy Spirit baptism is demonstrated in Jesus' promise to the apostles, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you" (Acts 1:8). What power were they to receive?

John chapters thirteen through sixteen are the record of a private conversation between Christ and his apostles (cf. John 13:1-30: Matthew 26:19-21). This conversation occurred immediately following what is commonly called "The Last Supper" (John13:2) and after Judas had gone out to betray his Lord (John 13:21-30). Except where there is specific proof otherwise, the promises contained within this context were addressed to the apostles alone.

Jesus pledged to give them "another Helper, that He may abide with you forever" (John 14:15-16). The Holy Spirit in His roll as the "Helper" ("Comforter," KJV), i.e., "helper, succorer, aider, assistant" (Thayer. 483), was never promised to anyone save the Lord's apostles. What would the Helper do for the apostles? He was to teach them all things and give them infallible memories (John 14:26). He would testify of Christ and help the apostles bear witness to the Lord's claims (John 15:26-27). Further, He was to help them reprove the world of the sin of not believing on Christ, of the righteousness of Jesus' claims and of the Judgment of Satan's power. He would guide the apostles into all truth, show them the future, and glorify Christ (John 16:7-14).

Weekly Devotional

What is your identity? I know you have a name. But what is your real identity? If it's in your work, what happens if you get fired? If it's in your marriage, what happens if your marriage ends in divorce? Is it in your kids? What if your children disown you or never see you?

To come up with God's identity, the Bible gives God a number of names. He's called Elohim, El-Shaddai Jehovah, and many other names. The reason why He is called so many names is that people try to identify who He is. Jesus is the same way. He has a number of names. In Isaiah 9:6, He's called the "Wonderful Counselor, Almighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. But Jesus called Himself a number of names. In John 6 He said He was the bread of life. This caused such a stir that many of his disciples left Him. Peter, however, when asked if he wanted to leave said, "Lord to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." What a confession! What a claim! Are you making that claim about Jesus? Do you believe, as Peter did, that Jesus holds the words of eternal life? Live for Him today knowing that He is the Source of all good things. Reflections Questions

- 1. Why do you think Jesus called Himself the Bread of Life?
- 2. Read John 6 and find out what other name Jesus called Himself. Why do you think He called Himself that?
- 3. Read John 7. How many opinions about Jesus do you find in that chapter? Why do you think there are so many different opinions about Him?
